Thanks for your kindness and your visit was a compliment to everyone in our faculty and university. Your professionalism has provided inspiration for the academic teaching and research for us, and we are looking forwards to cooperate with you in the future. Also I would like to send warm greetings and best wishes for happiness and good luck in the coming year!

Thanks again for your letter and best regards!
